

DOVE EQUIPMENT
ACQUIRES
CAN-AM FINISHING SYSTEMS,
a DIVISION OF BERG INDUSTRIAL SALES

Dove Equipment is pleased to announce their agreement to acquire the territories of Can-Am Finishing Systems, a Division of Berg Industrial Sales, Inc. effective Jan 19, 2008. The acquisition will provide continuing support for the customer base of Can-Am Finishing Systems and will also greatly increase the product offering available to Can-Am's customers.

Dove has been a long standing Graco and Wagner Powder Systems Distributor as well as ITW Binks/DeVilbiss and many other manufacturers of paint finishing, lubricating, and sealant & adhesive equipment.

The Dove Team is looking forward to giving you great support for your existing equipment and matching the right solutions to your future needs. Our experience in systems and application equipment are available to you for finding just the right hand gun all the way to full-scale liquid or powder paint finishing systems, including fully automatic finishing systems and ABB robotic paint systems.
